

Choosing the Right Accountant will Simplify a Complicated Divorce

When dealing with a financially complex divorce, there are many traits you and your attorney should look for in the accounting firm you hire. The financial professionals you work with should be specialized in family dispute resolution, honest about the likely results, committed to helping couples settle amicably, and flexible in their practice.

Such professionals can be found at Berenfeld Spritzer, a regional South Florida accounting firm. Our CPAs and valuation analysts are court certified in Broward, Miami-Dade, Monroe and Palm Beach counties.

Berenfeld Spritzer works with hundreds of families every year, in partnership with their attorneys, to address the 7 key factors in divorce:

- lifestyle analysis
- child support
- alimony
- property distribution
- retirement benefits
- business valuations
- financial disclosures
